

Case study:

TNT.

TNT Express was founded in Australia in 1946 and was originally named K W Transport after its founder, Ken Thomas. In 1958, the company was renamed Thomas Nationwide Transport, or TNT for short, and today TNT Express is one of the world's leading business-to-business express delivery service providers.

With a fleet of over 2,000 vehicles and a network of 60 depots and over 250 agencies across Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands, TNT offer their customers a complete range of express transport solutions on a national, regional and global scale.

TNT delivers to over 150 countries worldwide and employs around 80,000 individuals.
